LOS ANGELES SOL VS. CHICAGO RED STARS

Today's game marks the second meeting between the Los Angeles Sol and the Chicago Red Stars this season. The teams' last meeting at The Home Depot Center on June 3 ended with a 1-1 tie, with Camille Abily scoring the game-tying goal for the Sol in the 90th minute after the Red Stars had taken the lead just two minutes before. The Los Angeles Sol look to capture a third consecutive win and extend their unbeaten streak to ten games as they return back to their home field today.

LAST GAME RECAP

The Los Angeles Sol defeated the Saint Louis Athletica 2-1 at Anheuser Busch Soccer Park Wednesday night. The Athletica and Sol exchanged numerous shots on goal in the first half, but remained scoreless leading into the second half. Five minutes into the second half, Han Duan achieved her second goal of the season. Aly Wagner assisted Brazilian star Marta in the 73rd minute to put the Sol ahead by two. The Athletica quickly retaliated with a goal by Kerri Hanks. Sol goalkeeper Karina LeBlanc stood her ground against the Athletica's shots on goal, with eight great saves. The Athletica's Hope Solo blocked numerous shots on goal, but proved not to be enough to fend off the Los Angeles Sol.

TODAY'S LOS ANGELES SOL INJURY REPORT

LOS ANGELES SOL NEWS & NOTES

Sol Sign Lyndsey Patterson

The first-place Los Angeles Sol announced the signing of forward Lyndsey Patterson to a developmental contract this week. Patterson, 26, a three-time All-SEC selection with the University of Tennessee, finished her four-year career with the Lady Vols ranked seventh all-time in scoring (64 points), eighth in goals (20), and sixth in assists (24). She also led Tennessee to back-to-back SEC regular season titles in 2003 and 2004, in addition to SEC tournament crowns in 2002 and 2003.

Webcast

For the second time this season, the Sol will be live on the web. Today the game will be accessible for fans at 10 a.m. (PT) at www.LosAngelesSol.com. The last Sol webcast was on June 3 at The Home Depot Center.

Marta Nominated for ESPY

The current and three-time FIFA World Player of the Year, Marta has been nominated in the category of Best Female International Athlete. She will be competing against Russian pole vaulter Yelena Isinbayeva, Mexican golfer Lorena Ochoa, Australian swimmer Stephanie Rice and Russian tennis player Dinara Safina. The ESPYS, which take place July 15 and air July 19, are the one night each year where athletes from all sports join together to celebrate the best moments of the year.

Sol Sisters

In the last two games, the Sol's Camille Abily and Marta have become the top two players in the league with the most goals scored. Abily became the WPS goal-scoring leader, with seven, when the Sol defeated FC Gold Pride (Bay Area) June 21. Marta passed Christine Sinclair (Bay Area) on June 24, when they beat Saint Louis Athletica, to now stand alone with the second-most goals in the league with six.

Streak Hits Nine

With a nine-game unbeaten streak, it's no wonder why the Sol are sitting comfortably in first place. They are 6-0-3 in their last nine games, which means their last loss, against the second-place Boston Breakers, was May 2. In addition, they are 6-0-2 at The Home Depot Center. A win or a tie over the Red Stars means the Sol would have gone two complete months without a loss.

LOS ANGELES SOL
COACHING STAFF BIOS

ABNER ROGERS, HEAD COACH

On September 15, 2008, Abner Rogers was named the first-ever head coach of the Los Angeles Sol.

A nationally respected coach, the London-born Rogers had served as the President and Director of Coaching at the Laguna Hills Soccer Club Eclipse since 2001. Rogers can be attributed with creating the program philosophy, curriculum and guidelines, including coaches' education, which has propelled the club into national prominence.

Rogers has had extensive experience directing college showcases for elite teams from the U.S., highlighting players from the ages of Under 15-Under 18. For his accomplishments at the youth level, Rogers has been awarded the California Youth Soccer Association Coach of the Year honor, twice (1995 and 2005).

Rogers has helped and developed some of America's top talent in leading the Eclipse, a club that he founded and led to National Championships in 2002 and 2005. In addition, he has served as the head coach of the United States Adult Soccer Association's National Team (USASA). Prior to his success with the Eclipse and the USASA team, Rogers was the Head Coach of the Region IV Women's Olympic Development Program (ODP) team which won Gold medals at the US Soccer Festival in 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2002.

Rogers has guided 11 players to the professional ranks, 27 to Regional teams, 18 to National teams and 5 players to World Cup competition.

HUBERT BUSBY, ASSISTANT COACH

On March 1, 2009, Hubert Busby was named assistant coach of the Los Angeles Sol.

A former Jamaican International goalkeeper, he was most recently the Vancouver Whitecaps FC (USL-First Division) Technical Director and Academy Coach. Busby has also spent time as a player with the Toronto Lynx (PDL), Montreal Impact (USL-First Division), Ottawa Wizards (Canadian Professional Soccer League) and the Whitecaps, as well as Crystal Palace (The Championship) and Millwall in England and Caldas Sport Clube (Portuguese second division) and Telstar (Dutch second division).

After retiring as a player, Busby, 39, earned his USSF "A" license spending more than 10 years coaching the women's programs at Fairleigh Dickinson University and Queens University). His first professional coaching experience was in 2003 with the Ottawa Wizards (Canadian Soccer League), and he led the Wizards to a conference title. In 2004, he was appointed as Canadian Youth Team Coach for the National Training Centre in Eastern Canada and Technical Director for the Kanata Soccer Club.

In 2005, he was named the Head Coach for the Toronto Lynx, serving in that capacity for one season. After leaving the Lynx, he coached in Canada before becoming the Whitecaps FC's Technical Director and Academy coach in 2007.

NEIL POWELL, GOALKEEPER COACH

On March 1, 2009, Neil Powell was named goalkeeper coach of the Los Angeles Sol.

Powell comes to the Los Angeles Sol from the Laguna Hills Soccer Club Eclipse, where he has served in various capacities since 2004, most recently Director of Coaching.

Powell, 34, was born in Carshalton, England and began to play soccer at a young age. He showed enough promise early in his youth and played for the Under-12 and Under-14 academy teams for English Premier League side Tottenham Hotspur.

He later spent eight years in semi-professional soccer in a variety of leagues in England before immigrating to the United States.

In the USA, Powell has coached goalkeepers for both the UC-Santa Barbara men's (1999-2001) and women's (2003-2004) soccer teams as well as a variety of clubs, including the Eclipse, which he joined as assistant director of coaching in 2004 before assuming director duties last year.
