Washington vs. Sky Blue FC Recap

wo goals and an assist from forward Abby Wambach propelled the Washington Freedom to a 3-1 win over Sky Blue FC on the night of August 8, at the Maryland SoccerPlex. With the win, Washington clinches a playoff spot and the third seed in the WPS Playoffs. They will once again play Sky Blue FC at home in the first round of playoff action. Visit Ticketmaster to reserve your tickets. Boston fell behind late in their battle against the L.A. Sol, and were eliminated from playoff contention. The U.S. international forward Wambach opened her scoring ledger in the 19th minute, re-directing a Rebecca Moros cross from the right wing into the back of the net. In the 44th minute, Sky Blue FC's Rosana got loose down the right wing and cracked a shot from about 12 yards out, but Freedom goalkeeper Erin McLeod leapt to her right and parried the shot over the goal. Washington doubled their lead in the 48th minute. Lisa De Vanna weaved past a pair of Sky Blue FC defenders to gain the end line, then played a fine ball back across the mouth of the goal. Wambach easily tapped the ball in from two yards. Rosana brought Sky Blue FC back within one with a 23-yard bomb to the top left corner of the goal in the 53rd minute. But the Freedom struck back four minutes later, when the combination from the second goal flipped: this time it was Wambach serving a great ball from the right side to set up a smart finish from the Australian ace De Vanna. In the 64th minute, Kai penetrated the Freedom defense and fired a shot, which McLeod got a glove on. Becky Sauerbrunn finished the job with a header off the line to preserve the two-goal lead. Freedom will play one more home game at the Maryland Soccerplex at 4pm on Saturday, August 15th. The opponent is once again Sky Blue, and once again they are both playing for their own survival in the WPS playoffs.

Freedom News and Notes

Abby Wambach named WPS Player of the Month for July

Washington Freedom forward Abby Wambach has been named the WPS Player of the Month for July, leading her team to a 3-2-1 record during the month of July and putting the Freedom on the cusp of a playoff berth going into the final week of the WPS Regular Season. Wambach scored four goals and had one assist, bringing her total to six goals on the season, tied for fourth-most among league leaders. Highlights for Wambach included a two-goal game in a 3-2 come-from-behind victory over the Chicago Red Stars, and the only goal in a pivotal 1-0 victory over the Boston Breakers at the Maryland SoccerPlex on July 29.

Wambach becomes the first U.S. National Team player to win the WPS Player of the Month Award after Kelly Smith (England, Boston Breakers), Sonia Bompastor (France, Washington Freedom) and Camille Abily (France, Los Angeles Sol) won it in April, May and June. Each voting group – fans, teams and media – accounts for one-third of the final tally. Chicago Red Stars forward Cristiane was second in the voting, with Saint Louis Athletica goalkeeper Hope Solo also receiving considerable votes.

Freedom All-Star Selections

Sonia Bompastor, Abby Wambach and Cat Whitehill have all been selected to join the WPS All-Star team to face Swedish Champions Umeå IK in St. Louis at the Anheuser-Busch Soccer Park, Saint Louis Athletica's home field, in Fenton, Mo. Sonia Bompastor will be missing the All-Star game due to the European Championship.

Abby Wambach and Lisa De Vanna Teaming Up

Abby's has scored 5 of her 8 WPS goals since she scored her 100th national team goal on July 19th. Lisa De Vanna has assisted on 3 of Abby's recent goals and Abby has assisted on Lisa's 2 most recent goals (Aug 8 and July 15) - they are teaming up quite a bit

UNC Connections

Allie Long (of Freedom) and Yael Averbuch (of Sky Blue) were teammates last year at UNC when they won the National Championship. Cat Whitehill won a National Championship at UNC in 2003 with O'Reilly and White (both of Sky Blue).

Penn State Connections

Erin McLeod and Ali Krieger player college soccer together at Penn State and were both All-American in 2005 (Krieger also overlapped with Joanna Lohman at PSU for 1 year in 2003)

European Championship

Freedom midfielder Sonia Bompastor will be missing the playoffs and the WPS All-Star game because she has been called up by the French Women's National Team. This will change the Freedom's team dynamic because she is an essential playmaker in the midfield.
